

PARENTING APART WORKSHOP (mandatory requirement)

PICK ONE OF TWO

1.) Parenting Apart Workshop Series (TRIPLE P) powered by Family

Transitions: This free court preferred online class focuses on the needs of parents and children. Participants learn the importance of coparenting and develop skills to build a positive relationship for the sake of the children. When deemed safe, this course will resume providing in-person classes throughout Mendocino County (with snacks and childcare provided). You must register for this class and FIRST FIVE staff will confirm your registration slot.

1. Call 707-234-3300 to register for this workshop; OR

2. Register online at: <https://www.eventbrite.com/o/triple-p-mendocino-program-of-first-5-mendocino-12631523019>

2.) Families Change: This free online class was developed by the Center for Families, Children and the Courts. Click on the “Parenting After Separation” tab and be sure you have a good email address. This class meets the parent education requirements set forth by Superior Court of California, County of Mendocino.

www.familieschange.ca.gov – “Parenting After Separation” section

PLEASE NOTE

In order to show compliance with the Family Court parent education mandate, upon completion of your class, each parent should submit one (1) certificate of completion to both of the following locations:

- Superior Court of California, County of Mendocino
100 N. State Street, Family Law Clerk, Room 107, Ukiah, CA 95482
- Family Court Services, 100 North State Street, Room 212, Ukiah, CA 95482
(or email your certificate to the Court Mediator and she will file it for you) michelle.clemann@mendocino.courts.ca.gov